English homework

Grammar (present perfect or past simple)

1b) 1. A - Have you ever given money to charity?

B - Yes gave 10 pounds to a cancer charity last week.

2. A - Has she ever done volunteer work in Africa before?

B - Yes, she did some volunteer work in Mali last year.

3. A - Have you ever helped someone who was hurt?

B - Yes, helped a woman who fell off her bike last week.

4. A - I have left tips in the restaurant lots of times.

B - Really? How much did you leave the last time you came?

5. A - Has he every bought drinks for 20 people?

B - Yes, he bought a drink for all his friends on his birthday in July.

Vocabulary (make/do/give collocations)

2a) 1-d She was a very confident girl, so she made lots of friends at her new school.

2-h When she read the email from her nephew, it made her smile because it was so funny.

3-e Are you doing anything nice for your birthday?

4-b He's a very funny guy. He always make silly jokes when he's with friends.

5-g Your daughter's very clever. Is she doing well at school this term?

6-c My grandfather always gives us a big hug when we go to see him.

7-f He gave the American tourists directions to the train station?

8-a He didn't use his camera any more, so he gave it aways to his grandson.

2b) 1. I love those old black-and-white films. Charlie Chaplin always makes me smile.

2. You're so mean. You never give the waiters a tip.

3. He did volunteer work for a charity in Africa last year.

4. She was so happy to see him again that she gave him a bit hug.
5. Do your parents usually do something nice when it’s their wedding anniversary?
6. I’m having a great time in Paris. I’ve made some new friends in the hostel.
7. The doctors say that she’s doing well and that she can leave the hospital tomorrow.
8. I’ve never given anyone directions in French - all the tourists who come here speak English.

Vocabulary (money)

1a) 1-f My company pays my salary into my bank account.

2-g That holiday sounds fantastic, but it costs 5.000 pounds just for a week!

3-a My brother lent me 50 pounds yesterday, so I could buy some new jeans.

4-h If you can’t afford to buy a new car, why don’t you get a loan from the bank?

5-e She’s just spent 150 pounds on two pair of shoes.

6-c I only buy clothes from that shop when they have special offers.

7-d If you buy two jackets, we can give you a 20% discount.

8-b When I borrow money from my parents, I always pay it back quickly.

1b) I’m saving up for a car at the moment. I pay 200 pounds into my bank accout each month. I can't afford to buy a new car, so it will have to be second-hand - probably three or four years old. My parents have offered to lend me some money, but I don’t want to borrow any money from them. They’ve just bought a very old house in the country and they need to spend a lot of money on repairs. So I’m going to ask the bank for a loan of 5.000 pounds. I think I can pay it back in two years.